

LETTERS FROM PARENTS

To Prospective Green Wave Parent(s),

Our family has spent the past two seasons participating in the Green Wave Basketball program. Our son, Curtis Reeser, was a two year participant. The experiences we have all had with the program have been outstanding. Our son has gained valuable experience in both the game of basketball, and in life.

Coaches Rick and Scott have been excellent teachers and models to Curtis. They have coached to win, while not losing sight of the importance of being gracious in both victory, and defeat.

Being part of the Green Wave program is a huge commitment of time for both you and your child. The time that the coaching staff spends in preparation as well as at practice and games will exceed that by many times. Rick and Scott have always shown the best of interests of the players to be their number one concern.

If you are looking for a great place for your child to continue learning the game of basketball, Green Wave Basketball is it. In our two years with the program, we never wondered whether we had made the right choice.

Dear Parents,

We would like to take this opportunity to let you know how great the Green Wave program is. Our son C. J. was blessed with the opportunity to play for two years for Rick and Scott Hackler. During that time, we saw tremendous growth—not just in his basketball skills but also in his growth as a young man and a Christian.

The practices are hard, but you will see a vast improvement of skills from each player on the team. The boys are taught how to win and lose with dignity and class. Prayer is an ever-present part of the environment. Rick and Scott give more than 100% commitment of their time and talent to this program. The high frequency of practices and tournaments is well worth the cost of the program. One of C. J.'s favorite memories was the team camaraderie. Our only regret is that C. J. will not be able to play for them any more.

As parents, we know we will not be the only adult influence in our son's lives. C. J. has been blessed to have had Rick and Scott as such positive role models. If you have any questions about the Coaches or the Green Wave program, please feel free to give us a call.
